

TAROT / ORACLE CARD / RUNE READINGS

A Shamanic deep dive into the etherial to SEE what the cards want to show you.

Predictive reading is often limited to a specific moment in time, and the future can change at any moment. While some elements of what could be on the horizon may surface during a reading, my focus is primarily on accessing the esoteric energy of the moment or situation to help you learn more about yourself or to SEE more than one point of view. Let's discover what the oracle is revealing to you, wants you to be mindful of, or take with you on your journey. The advice provided by the oracle ranges from light and hopeful, to firm yet fair, but ultimately, it is nothing more than an offer from the ether. An interpretation of the energy of the moment, and only YOU will know if you want it to be part of your story. That is always within your span of control.

If you're searching for a "predict my future" type of reading, that is not my specialty, but I'm happy to offer some recommendations. I'm not the kind of reader who is going to help you make major life decisions based on what the oracle reveals. Instead, I use them as a tool to help you gain a deeper understanding of yourself or to reveal the tough questions that need to be answered before you make the next move. Oracles can unearth a lot of information, and I'm prepared to explore that with you. We can even develop some journal or reflection prompts together after the reading, so you can continue to grow or understand what the cards revealed.

TAROT / ORACLE CARD / RUNE READINGS

As a non-traditional reader, I use the oracle imagery to gain intuitive insights instead of relying on the exact meanings of the cards. (Although I still enjoy learning from the deck guidebooks and connecting my intuition to the authors' intended meanings.) For me, the oracle serves as a vehicle, with the meanings being incidental. Sometimes they hold more weight than others, and I allow my heart and spirit to guide me as I read for you. I feel my price is in line with my experience level in reading for others.

MY ORACLE METHOD: With dozens of decks available, tell me about what things resonate with you (e.g. Animals, Aliens, Astrology, Ascension or Starseed themes, etc.) and what you are trying to find out. We can use one of the deck's recommended spreads, or we can customize one together. We'll connect first as to what you are looking for, so we can determine the deck and the questions. I can do this in real time, online or in-person.

MY TAROT & RUNE METHOD: I enter it as sacred work and sit in ceremony to divine from either of these tools. I have a deeper connection with spirit this way and can give you more accurate information without distraction. I have an enormous respect for these two ancient divination methods and treat their use with the utmost regard. We'll connect after the reading to go over it and you'll have an opportunity to ask follow-ups.
